

Candidate Questionnaire

Local Candidates Committee - NYS Legislative Election - 2020 General

Monday, September 14, 2020

Dear candidate,

Congratulations on your decision to run for office in the New York State Legislature!

In the following pages, you will find questions regarding your positions on various reform measures, campaign promises, and ethics in public office.

Responses to these questions will be one of several factors Citizens Union uses to evaluate candidates running for the New York State Legislature, and to issue our endorsement for the General Election.

This is a document confirming your responses to the Citizens Union questionnaire.

We plan to make responses to this questionnaire public on our website, printed voters directory, and other appropriate venues. If you seek our support, we will also need to schedule an interview with you as part of the evaluation process. Given time constraints and the limited capacity of a member-based organization, we may not be able to evaluate all contests in this election cycle.

RESPONDING TO THE COVID-19 OUTBREAK

Government under the COVID-19 outbreak

14. Maintain the current redistricting process, supported by voters through a 2014 constitutional amendment, and particularly the elements that provide minority parties a voice in the process, allow the Independent Redistricting Commission to play a central role, and takes redistricting power away from the hands of incumbent lawmakers.

☒ Support ☐ Oppose

15. Provide public access to observe and participate in government proceedings, in meetings that would be public under the New York Open Meetings Law, via live and recorded video available on government websites.

☒ Support ☐ Oppose

16. The Legislature stopped holding regular meetings soon after the COVID-19 outbreak, and later reconvened in July and August for short sessions that dealt with urgent matters. Should the Legislature return to its regular, pre-COVID calendar next session?

☒ Yes ☐ No

17. The ability of citizens and advocates to make their voices heard in Albany has been severely curtailed since the Legislature shifted to work remotely. How can the Legislature remain open and accessible for New Yorkers who seek to engage their representatives?

At a minimum, members of the Legislature should use their district offices to meet with citizens and advocates and allow them the space to convey their concerns. In person meetings, zoom and conference calls, and rallies are all ways members can remain in conversation with the community.

Serving the public under the COVID-19 outbreak

18. What are your concerns regarding the use of emergency powers during this crisis, and how do you think NY government can maintain public accountability standards at this time?

The use of emergency powers can be helpful during a crisis but there is an inherent risk that certain liberties may be taken which the Legislature doesn't feel comfortable with, especially decisions that may appear heavy-handed. I believe NY government can maintain accountability by providing a check and balance of the governor's measures.

If needed, you may elaborate below on your positions on the previous questions. You may also provide additional information on any actions that you have taken or plan to take to advance your positions on these issues.

19. What are the biggest challenges in your district in dealing with the coronavirus outbreak?

Thus far, it's been food insecurity as I have a high percentage of seniors.

20. What are the appropriate roles of city, state, and federal governments in a crisis such as this?

The appropriate roles are for all levels of government to provide wide ranging relief services. I'm proud to have been on the ground at the height of the pandemic, serving hot meals and delivering medication to my constituents when access to these necessities were limited.

21. How will you help your future constituents, residents and businesses, access potential funding from the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, or any other future government relief funds?

By ensuring that I widely publicize the information and my staff is available for individual follow up

CAMPAIGN PROMISES MADE TO VOTERS

What are the top five promises you are making to the voters during the campaign?

Campaign Promise 1

That I will keep fighting to push my two bills related to government transparency (a search tool to look up all government spending as well as all state grants)

Campaign Promise 2

To unveil an economic mobility plan to help families with saving and investing, entrepreneurship and home ownership

Campaign Promise 3

To push for Jeanne's law which addresses the rise of hit and run accidents across our communities.

Campaign Promise 4

I will work with NYCHA to address safety concerns expressed by local residents. Will seek clearance to allocate funding for security measures.

Campaign Promise 5

To become more vocal about mental health need and services during my second term as many New Yorkers are dealing with an untreated mental illness. I will become more outspoken about addresses these concerns in our communities.

ETHICAL REPRESENTATION OF CONSTITUENTS

Citizens Union believes that all New Yorkers deserve to be represented by officials who work for the public interest and honor the public trust. With the corruption conviction of recent legislative leaders, we seek to endorse a candidate who will demonstrate that they will honor the full commitment of the oath of office, and always represent the public interest above all else.

Please tell us how you have and would continue to conduct the political affairs of this office in an upright manner, and maintain the public trust.

The best way to maintain the public trust is to be honest and transparent. My office spearheaded the first Southern Brooklyn Community Roundtable in order to hear from local residents about issues that matter to them. I am committed to always listening and being transparent with my constituents so that they know I am operating with integrity.
